Action Taken Report

Beginning with the yoga day celebration, we could arrange a motivational lecture by well-known speaker Jay Vasavada. The students' orientation along with celebration of monsoon with Rain Songs held. Sanskrit spoken classes and certificate course started as planned with Finishing school classes. A Blood Donation Camp, Thalassemia Test, Mini Marathon Race, Book fair, visit to Banās Dairy and FCI Palanpur held successfully. Finally at the end of the year prize distribution Ceremony and Farewell function for last year students held in time.

The Departmental and committee based activities which are not discussed in IQAC Meetings were done throughout the year. They include various competitions like Debate, Painting, Quiz, Essay writing, Rangoli, Mehdi, food making, Hair Style-sari wearing, Best out of waste etc. Most of the National Days and birth centenaries were also celebrated throughout the year. Tours, Cleanliness Programmes, Awareness rallies, guest lectures and festivals were also celebrated with full enthusiasm. Activities of Academic circles, woman cell activities, NSS, NCC, Sports, Cultural and social, programmes, community services activities also held successfully.

The farewell of Retiring members, training to non-teaching staff, beginning of FM Radio were also done successfully. Thus the year of 2018-19 was full of activities and programmes. No major and minor research activities reported and the institute could not organize seminars and conferences this year. Three of the teachers attended an International Conference at Malaysia and their papers were published in an International journal. Career Counseling and placement cell activities need to be strengthened more. More focus on Spoken English of the students should be given from the next year. The overall performance of the institute remained satisfactory. The meeting ended with the resolution to improve further next year and conduct more activities to make the campus thriving, exuberating and shining.
